

SOCIETY

The marriage of Miss Laura Haynes and Mr. Charles Edson Manning will be solemnized this afternoon at 6:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Haynes, 1124 Polk street. Dr. Stephen S. Estey, of the First Presbyterian church, will read the service.

Miss Haynes will be attended by Miss Grace Lukens, as maid of honor, and Harriet Wilson, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Wilson, will carry the ring. Dr. James Haynes, of Fort Sheridan, Ill., a cousin of the bride's, will attend Mr. Manning as his best man. The Lohengrin wedding march will be played for the entrance of the bride and groom by Miss Enid Strickler.

The decorations for the house will be palms and Killarney roses, and the colors for the flowers and the gowning of the bride will be pink and white.

The bride's gown is white crepe de chine, combined with mink and lace. The gown is made in a semi-Grecian style, with Empire waist, and the skirt is made with a train. The bride will wear an old veil of Spanish lace, which is gathered into a cap, fastened with lilies of the valley. She will carry a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Lukens will wear white crepe de chine and carry a bouquet of pink roses, and Harriet Wilson will wear a white frock with pink ribbons and sash.

Miss Haynes was a Washburn college girl and is an attractive young woman with a wide circle of friends. Mr. Manning formerly made his home in Missouri. He is now employed as traveling accountant for the Santa Fe. He and his bride will make their home at 1209 Mulvane street after the completion of the house which they are having built there.

The guests at the wedding tonight will be the relatives of the Haynes and Manning families and a few friends.

A reception which is to be probably the largest social affair of the summer, will be held Thursday afternoon, July 1, at the Governor's House in Buchanan and Eighth streets, to welcome Dr. Lyda De Vilbiss of New York city, who will arrive the first part of next month to take charge of the department of child hygiene, which is one of the newly established departments at the party will be the Good Government club, and because the department is to be in charge of Dr. De Vilbiss is of interest throughout the state of Kansas, representative women from over the state have been invited to come to Topeka and assist at the reception.

Topeka women engaged in various activities of special interest to women, will also be among the assisting people, and an invitation to call and meet Dr. De Vilbiss is given to all who are interested in club and welfare work, and others who wish to assist in welcoming the new state officer to Kansas.

Out of town women to whom invitations were sent today are: Mrs. J. M. Miller of Council Grove, president of the State Federation of Women's clubs; Mrs. W. T. Morgan of Hutchinson, wife of the lieutenant governor; Mrs. George Guernsey of Independence, regent of the state D. A. R.; Mrs. Eugene F. Ward of Kansas City, president of the Woman's Kansas Day club; Mrs. S. M. Williams of Kansas City, president of the Kansas branch of the Mothers' Congress; Mrs. Sena Hartwell Wallace of Kansas City, state lecturer for the W. C. T. U.; Mrs. Frank Strong of Lawrence, wife of the State University chancellor; Mrs. Vincent C. Robb of Ottawa; Mrs. Homer Hoch of Marion; Mrs. Tom Cordry of Parsons; Mrs. E. W. Poindexter of Kansas City; Mrs. Carr W. Taylor of Hutchinson; Mrs. Frances Brown of Manhattan, of the extension department of the State Agricultural college; Mrs. Fanny Holsinger and Mrs. George Rose of Rosedale; Mrs. N. M. P. Nason of Kansas City, president of the Wyandotte County Good Government club; Mrs. Elizabeth Callen of the Pittsburg Kansan; Mrs. Etta L. Ward of Hays; Mrs. Tom Thompson of Howard; Miss L. French of the Emporia Gazette; Mrs. Mary Vance Humphrey of Junction City; Mrs. Ida M. Ferris of Osgood City; Mrs. W. S. Roark of Junction City; Mrs. C. B. Walker of Norton; Mrs. J. M. McCown of Emporia; Mrs. Saddle P. Grisham of Cottonwood Falls; Mrs. H. J. Waters and Mrs. Guy Lewman of Manhattan.

Governor Arthur Capper has been asked to make a short address at the reception, welcoming the guest of honor.

Miss Ethelyn Harrison, one of the musicians of Topeka who is socially popular, is spending the season in California. She is in Los Angeles this summer, and is giving a successful series of concerts in that city. The Los Angeles papers speak favorably of her musical ability, as well as her personal attractiveness. She is taking an active interest in the convention of the Federation of Music Clubs in Los Angeles, which is now in session.

Miss Ethelyn Harrison, Who is in California This Summer.

her musical ability, as well as her personal attractiveness. She is taking an active interest in the convention of the Federation of Music Clubs in Los Angeles, which is now in session.

Chancellor and Mrs. Frank Strong of Lawrence were at home to their friends Friday evening in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The callers were received by Chancellor and Mrs. Strong and Miss Evelyn Strong, and the assisting people were: Mrs. A. T. Walker, Mrs. W. H. Johnson, Mrs. Charles Esterly, Mrs. B. N. Wilcox, Mrs. H. A. Rice, Mrs. J. N. Van der Vries, Mrs. E. Haworth, and Mrs. S. J. Hunter.

Mr. Justice and Mrs. W. A. Johnston of Topeka were guests at the party, and others from out of town were former Governor and Mrs. W. E. Hoch of Marion, Mrs. Cora G. Lewis of Kinsley and Mr. E. T. Hackney of Wellington. Dr. W. H. Carruth of the University of California, formerly vice chancellor of K. U., was present, and made the presentation speech when the anniversary gifts from the guests were given to Chancellor and Mrs. Strong.

Mrs. Guilford Dudley will have guests to luncheon at the Country club Monday.

Miss Alice Meade will entertain her sewing club Wednesday of next week.

Mr. J. M. Burrow gave a lawn party Friday afternoon and evening for the directors of the Central National Bank and their wives. The company included: Mr. and Mrs. George Guild, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ames, Mr. P. L. Bonebrake, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Merriam, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bronson and their guests, Mrs. H. P. Brandow and Miss Helen Brandow, of Albany, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. A. Zahner, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Ott, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Clevenger, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Abrahams, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Elliott, and Mr. W. B. Kirkpatrick.

Guests of Mrs. Willard N. Hall at luncheon at the Country Club Friday were: Mrs. George A. Clark, Mrs. Arthur Mills, Mrs. Frank Merriam, Mrs. Fred Freeman, Mrs. Schuyler Nichols, Mrs. Robert Pierce, Mrs. L. H. Waugh, Mrs. Frank Crane, Mrs. J. A. Cole, Miss Nellie Clough and Virginia Mills.

Mrs. V. B. Kistler entertained the four women who were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grimes, and her sister, Mrs. Monte Kistler, Mrs. Robert S. Pierce, Mrs. Jack Campbell, Mrs. Edwin Kistler, Mrs. Grimes and Mrs. Monte Kistler.

Miss Louise Kaster entertained her bridge club at a morning party Friday. Those who played were: Mrs. W. P. Snyder, Mrs. Albert Searle, Mrs. H. C. Mulroy, Mrs. T. S. Stevens, Mrs. Daisy Nell, Miss Alice Meade, Miss Guenn Godard, Miss Lenore Monroe, Miss Day Monroe, Miss Ruth Manspeaker and Miss Elsie Dean.

Miss Vera Benjamin and Mr. Harry Morrison were married this morning at 6:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Benjamin, of 800 Lane street, by the Rev. W. B. Fisher. There were no attendants and no wedding music. The bride wore a coat suit of blue and a white hat with blue pom-pom trimming and facing of chiffon.

Mrs. Morrison formerly lived in Salina, Kansas, where she graduated from the high school. She took one year of her college course in the Kansas State University. The family then moved to Topeka, and she finished at Washburn college, taking the remaining three years of her college course in the fine arts department. Since finishing school, she has been teaching piano, and has been active in musical work.

Mr. Morrison is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Morrison of Joplin, Mo. He graduated from the Joplin high school, and since that time he has made his home in Topeka with his aunt, Mrs. G. C. Huston. He was in the employ of the Rock Island for five years, and now has a position in the Beatrice Creamery Company offices.

After a short trip to Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison will return to Topeka and will live temporarily at the Benjamin home in Lane street.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hills Kingman and their little son, Virgil Winslow, have left for Champaign, Ill., where Mr. Kingman has received a fellow-

Why Not Make Some Money as others have done in

PINEHURST LOTS

There are people who own Pinehurst tracts who would refuse prices 50 per cent higher than they gave. THE ACTUAL INCREASE IN VALUE IS THERE AND IS STILL COMING. When the few remaining lots in Pinehurst are sold you'll never BUY THEM SO LOW AGAIN

$100 to $250 Per Lot

During the past week we have sold several lots and other deals will be closed this evening. If you have contemplated the purchase of good real estate, something that is an investment, a money saving scheme and a profitable proposition all in one, don't look any further, don't wait any longer.

Take a Gage Park car, get off on Washburn or Summit Avenue. Our representative will be on the ground to show you the unsold lots or tracts.

You Can't Go Wrong in Selecting Any Lot or Tract in This Beautiful Addition

(Adjoins the City on the West, Lies Between Sixth and Tenth Avenue on Gage Park Line)

Easy Terms $10 Now and $1 A Week

No Interest--No Taxes for Two Years

Decide on Your Location and Close the Deal

Rich men buy such lots as these on easy payments. Why not you?

No man or woman ever lost money buying lots in any legitimately developed addition to the city of Topeka.

Every one who has had energy and foresight enough to take advantage of such opportunities has made money at it.

There's a chance for a few more, only a few though, to get in on this deal. However, you should act promptly.

Come Out Tomorrow

Elmhurst Investment Co.

Phone 1327

Third Floor, New England Bldg.

An Invitation to Women Who Care for Beauty

MISS MAE WARD, noted Beauty specialist from Boston, will be with us next week. Every woman who values attractiveness and personal charm is invited to meet her.

Miss Ward Will Give You a Free Massage in Your Home

Not only will Miss Ward be pleased to have you call at our store, but we have arranged for her to make a limited number of calls to homes each day. She will give you a massage and advice without charge.

Phone 457 for Your Appointment

As this competent authority will be with us but one week, we advise making appointment early. We will attend to details.

Tully-McFarland DRUG CO.

9th and Kansas Avenue

The Rexall Store

ship in the University of Illinois. He will teach biology in that school. He taught for two years in Parkville, Mo., and is leaving to obtain his Ph. D. degree in the Illinois University.

Mr. and Mrs. Kingman were in Topeka to attend the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Washburn college. They are both graduates of the 1913 class of Washburn. While they were in Topeka they visited Mr. Kingman's mother, Mrs. Alice Newman Kingman, and Mrs. Kingman's parents, the Rev. Mr. V. C. Tallafiero, and Mrs. Tallafiero. Mrs. Kingman, before her marriage, was Miss Mildred Tallafiero.

"The Princess Chrysanthemum," a Japanese operetta, will be given at the

Skilled Workmen

from Draftsman to machinist should take care of their eyes, as their situation depends upon good sight.

If Your Eyes

have begun to feel the strain—I can with proper glasses increase their usefulness for years to come.

Let Me Show You

W. J. LEWIS

The Highclass Eyeglass Man Jeweler 809 Kansas Ave. SIGN BIG SPX

Masonic Temple, June 28th, under the auspices of the Ancient Totelec Rite, directed by Mrs. E. H. Anderson.

Chorus: Misses Gertrude and Marjorie Anderson, Mrs. C. B. Burge, Miss Bee Burge, Miss Margaret Conwell, Miss Marie Finch, Miss Ruth Zimmermann, Miss Marian Moore, Miss Mary Cunningham, Miss Ellen Malmstrom, Miss Lillian Malmstrom, Miss Nell Smith, Miss Birdie Chandler, Miss Marceline Couture, Miss Elizabeth Grecoy, Mrs. R. H. Morehouse, Miss Alice Morehouse, Mrs. Chas. Joslin, Miss Margaret Rust.

Sprites: Dana Anderson, Joe Burge, De Forest Joslin, Delbert Boutwell, Virgil Sama, Maurice Edson.

Fairies: Louis Zimmerman, Mary Dickhut, Elizabeth Anderson, Leah Affron, Charlotte Affron, Bertha Couture.

Program.

Princess Chrysanthemum..... The Emperor's Daughter..... Mrs. George H. Allen..... Helen Lucas..... Yum-Yum..... Georgia Neese..... Du-Du..... Helen Neese..... Tu-Lip..... Mildred Carey..... Maidens attendant on the Princess..... Fairy Moonbeam.....

The Princess's Good Genius..... Miss Lena Philbin..... The Emperor What-for-Whi..... A Mermaid (?) Monarch..... Mr. Edwin C. Fox..... Prince So-True..... Mr. P. B. Hamlin..... Prince So-Sil..... Dr. C. W. Schwartz..... In love with the Princess..... Top-Not..... The Court Chamberlain..... Dr. L. V. Sims..... Saucer-Eyes..... The Wizard Cat..... Sprites of the Night..... Courtiers, Populace, Attendants, Fairies, etc.

Mrs. H. P. Mann and her daughter, Mrs. Bert Gillespie, entertained guests this afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. Bert Bissell, of Oklahoma City, who is visiting Mrs. N. B. Campbell, Mrs. Bissell formerly lived in Horton, and the other guests at the party were former Horton people. The company included: Mrs. Bissell, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Frank Gibbs, Mrs. George Badders, Mrs. Robert Fullerton, Mrs. W. E. McCallless, Miss Frances Closser of Kansas City, Miss Edna Hopkins, Miss Louise Allison, Mrs. Mann and Mrs. Gillespie. The guests were old friends of Mrs. Bissell's.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Wood and their daughters, Dorothy and Florence, of Kansas City, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Godfrey Moore. Mrs. Moore entertained guests for Mrs. Wood and the Misses Wood this afternoon, and tonight Mr. and Mrs. Moore will give a dinner party for their visitors. Sunday night they will have a steak roast for Mr. and Mrs. Wood and their daughters.

The sacred cantata, the Ten Virgins, will be sung Sunday evening at the First English Lutheran church, corner of Fifth and Harrison streets.

The organist and director is Miss Lydia Emery. The sopranos—Misses Selma Foberg, Edith Troxell, Mary Christman, Esther Lindell, Mrs. Arthur Miller, Mrs. Oscar H. Schmidt, Altos—Miss Marian McAfee, Miss Irene Troxell, Miss Marie Graff, Tenors—Bernard McDown, Millard Troxell, Cleus Buehrer. Bases—

Part I—Contemplation.

Organ—Introduction. Chorus—No Shadows Yonder. Air Tenor—My Soul is Aethist for God, Mr. Heywood.

Chorus—They That Sow in Tears Shall Reap in Joy. Air Contralto—Eye Hath Not Seen, Mrs. Pribble.

Chorus—Thine is the Kingdom. Part II—Adoration.

Organ—Intermezzo. Air Bass—Thus Seith the Lord, Behold, I Create New Heaven and a New Earth, Mr. Danton.

Chorus—Let the Heavens Rejoice. Air Tenor—To the Lord Belong Mercies and Forgiveness, Mr. Pribble. Air Contralto—Thou Shalt the King Say, Come Ye Blessed, Miss Barnes.

Bass and Women's Voices—List the Cherub Host, Bass solo by Mr. Mikessell.

Chorus—Great and Marvellous are thy works.

Harold Rankin, Paul Younger, John Christman, John Troxell, Edward Mc-Nerney.

The Christian Endeavor quartet of the First Presbyterian church, composed of Miss Enid Strickler, Miss Mattie Barnes, Mr. W. Heywood, Mr. I. J. Danton, assisted by the regular quartet, Mrs. George Parkhurst, Mrs. Harry Pribble, Mr. Harry Pribble, Mr. M. E. Mikessell, Mrs. P. Garver, organist, will give a Cantata, "The Holy City," by Goun, Sunday evening, at 8 o'clock. The following is the program:

Part I—Contemplation. Organ—Introduction. Chorus—No Shadows Yonder. Air Tenor—My Soul is Aethist for God, Mr. Heywood.

Chorus—They That Sow in Tears Shall Reap in Joy. Air Contralto—Eye Hath Not Seen, Mrs. Pribble.

Chorus—Thine is the Kingdom. Part II—Adoration.

Organ—Intermezzo. Air Bass—Thus Seith the Lord, Behold, I Create New Heaven and a New Earth, Mr. Danton.

Chorus—Let the Heavens Rejoice. Air Tenor—To the Lord Belong Mercies and Forgiveness, Mr. Pribble. Air Contralto—Thou Shalt the King Say, Come Ye Blessed, Miss Barnes.

Bass and Women's Voices—List the Cherub Host, Bass solo by Mr. Mikessell.

Chorus—Great and Marvellous are thy works.

The women of the fourth division of Holy Name Guild will meet in the Knights of Columbus hall Tuesday, June 29, at three p. m., to sew on church linen.

A pretty girl is being pursued by a very handsome man. She was introduced to him a few weeks ago, and he calls her up faithfully, making unsuccessful attempts to win her favor. He has now asked her to go with him to the circus when it gets to town. She talked it over with her mother. "He is so funny looking I don't want to go any place with him," she confided, "but I have made up my mind to go to the circus. Everybody will think he's one of the clowns."

The recital of Mrs. E. D. Clithero's pupils will be given Tuesday night of next week, instead of Wednesday night, as formerly announced. The recital will be held at Unity church at eight o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Brown of 1630 Guthrie avenue will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary Sunday, July 4, and Saturday, the 3d, they will receive their friends at their home during the afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown were married in Pennsylvania in 1865, and came to Topeka in 1887. They have occupied their present home, which they built when they came to Kansas, since it was completed twenty-eight years ago. Their daughter, Miss Bertha Brown, will assist in receiving the guests. All friends of Mr. and Mrs. Brown are invited to call.

Notes and Personal Mention.

Miss Joy Paxton, who has been studying in the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, Mass., has arrived home to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Paxton.

Miss Frances Closser of Kansas City is visiting her sister, Mrs. Grover Doering.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Scott will leave the first week in July for a trip to California.

(Continued on Next Page.)